Public meeting on Engineers Flood Report airs differing views

Residents attending the flood plain study meeting Monday night heard the representatives of the Army Corps of Engineers say that a recommendation study would take another two or three years and it would probably be about nine years before the solution (whatever it happened to be) would be completed.

A number of those in the seemingly hostile audience seemed to feel that this was an excessive amount of time, with Hal Arnot and Mrs. Harwell Dyer recommending a Valley "do-it-yourself-plan" rather than relying on the Federal Government or Army for the solution to our flood problem.

Lt. Col. Harry McK. Roper explained to the 40 persons present that the recently released report was only one section of a two-pronged approach to the problem. The Flood Plain Information Report, he stated, neither deals with nor offers any plan for construction of flood protection works. It only identifies the problem so that land management may be expedited.

It was recommended that there be restriction on use of flood plain land until a solution for flooding is reached; then release of the land after this is accomplished, making more acreage available for development, since this land would be useable.

DO WE HAVE A CHOICE?

Mrs. John Woolfenden asked whether the people of the Valley would have any say over what we get in the way of a solution, referring to the concrete channel installed near Santa Cruz.

Col. Roper replied that in the past mistakes have been made and under new policy the aesthetics of the project are highly important. He cited two instances where the engineers were working with local beautification committees to provide some flood solution which was compatible with the area.

"I agree that you don't want a sterile concrete channel," he added.

Supervisor Willard Branson asked what would happen if we went ahead with the survey and at the completion decided we didn't WANT what the engineers had come up with... would we lose the funds available for construction?

Roper replied that it could happen but he felt that they could work it out with the community. He said without the survey he couldn't say what would be done with Carmel Valley... that it might be a multi-use dam, combining flood control with water conservation that would be the answer.

Marcucci takes on Fiesta de los Amigos jobs

Plans for Carmel Valley's Fiesta de los Amigos are shaping up well with the announcement last week that Dr. Ed Marcucci would be chairman in charge of entertainment.

General Chairman Sam Brandt has also asked Dr. Marcucci to line up participants for the parade which will start the festivities Sept. 2 on Del Fino Place. Dr. Marcucci accepted this assignment too.

Chip Collins reports from the Volunteer Fire Dept. that beards and mustachios are sprouting among his crew as well as here and there throughout the Village, to lend an authentic flavor to the early Spanish-California fiesta atmosphere.

Rumor has it that shades of Tiburcio Vasquez will walk that day, and that the desperado with whiskers most closely resembling those of that bold bandido of Valley history will be especially honored during the revels.

Prizes will be awarded for the fanciest, longest and most Spanish styles in evidence.

Mrs. MacDougal marks 87th year

MRS. FRANK PORTER (left) does the honor of cutting the cake for her sister, Mrs. Jack MacDougal of Salinas, who celebrated her 87th birthday on Sunday at Rancho del Monte Country Club. Among the 25 guests who arrived to wish her well were her other sister, Mamie Harris Percy, who came up with her husband, Gird, from Ventura, and Mamie's son, Carrick Harris and his family. Mrs. MacDougal's two daughters, Mrs. Charles Monard of Boulder Creek and Mrs. Lee McGowan of Salinas, were on hand to wish their mother happy birthday.

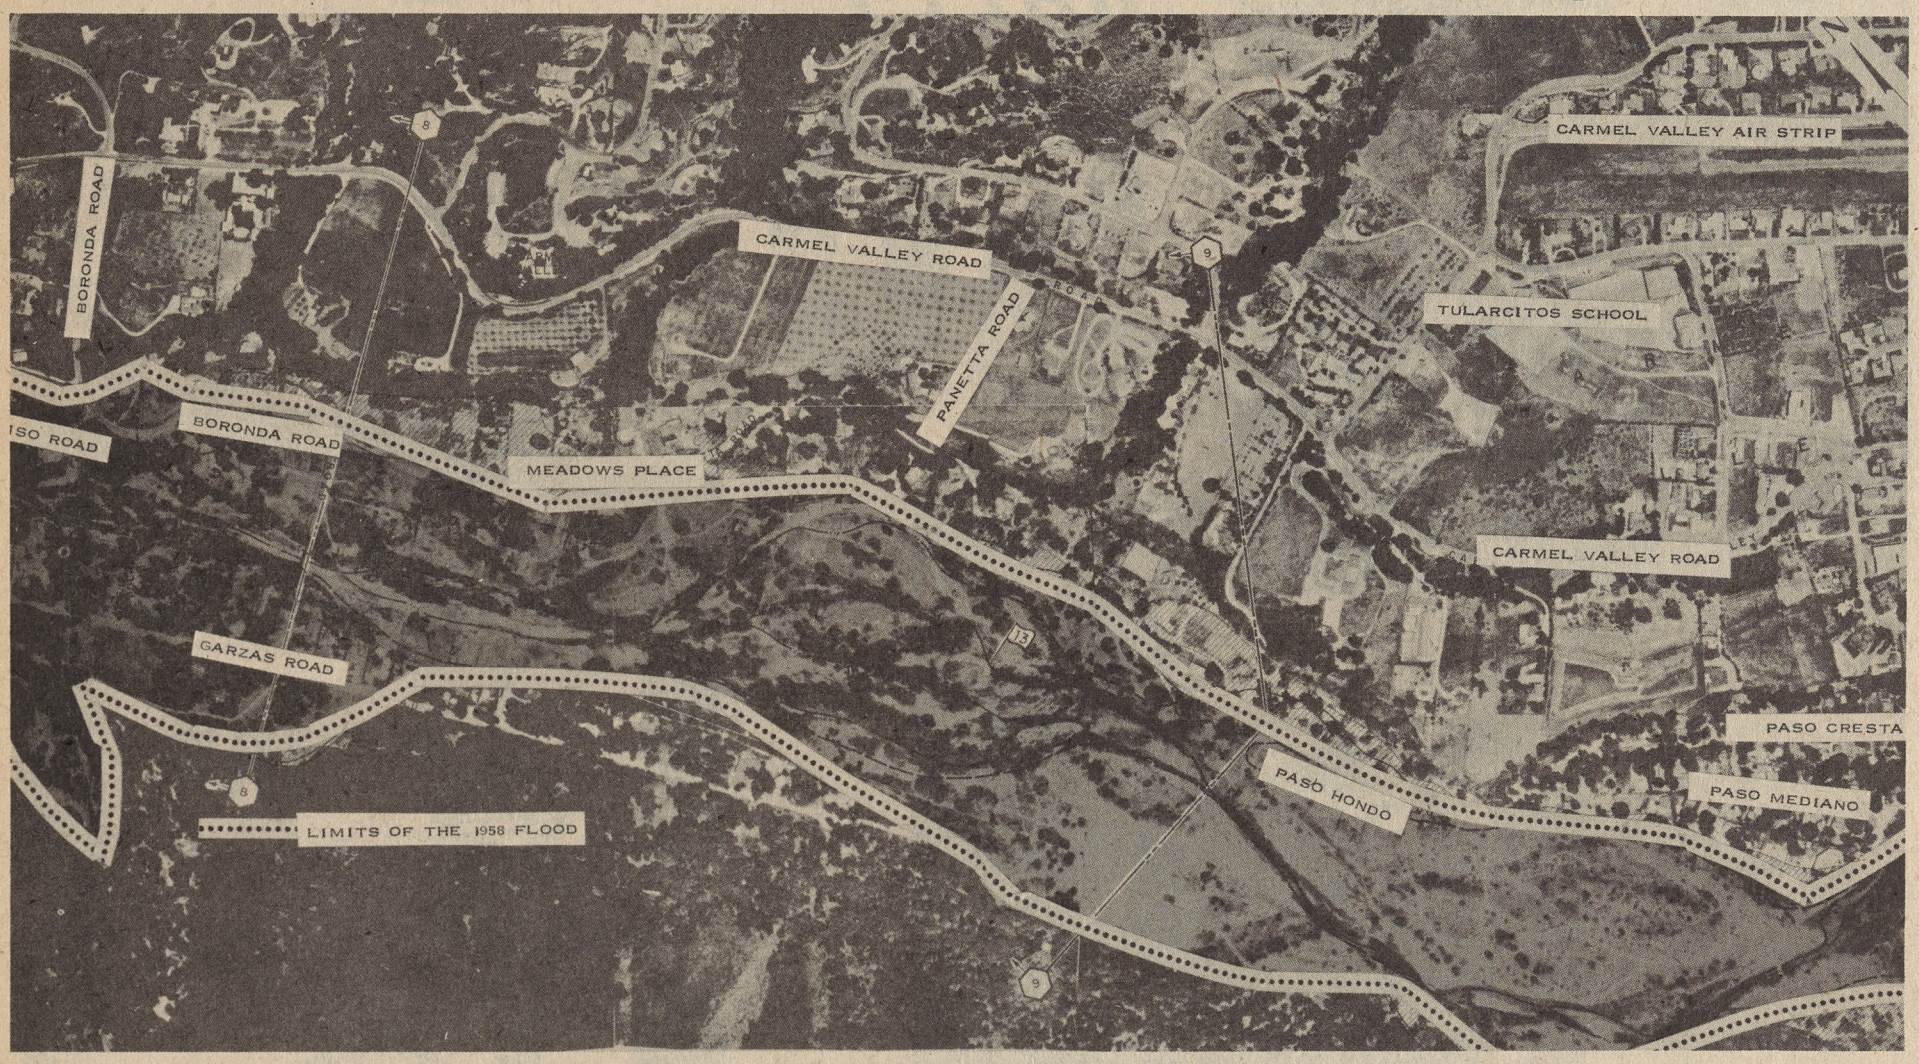
Extent of the 1958 flood in upper Carmel Valley



The devastating floods of 1911, 1914 and 1958 are graphically related in further excerpts from the U.S. Army Engineer Corps flood plain report:

RECENT SEVERE FLOOD OCCURRENCES

The largest flood of recent occurrence on Carmel River was that of April 1958. High water marks taken at the staff gage at State Highway No. 1 bridge indicate that the floods of February 1938 and February 1945 were of approximately the same magnitude, which agrees with the discharges recorded at San Clemente Dam on these dates. However, the San Clemente flow records indicate that the 1955 discharge was approximately 30 per cent lower than the 1958 discharge, although the U.S.G.S. gage at Arroyo Seco in the adjacent watershed of the Salinas River basin recorded almost identical flows for both the 1958 and 1955 storms. Approximate high water marks at State Highway No. 1 gage seem to verify the difference in the peak flows of the two storms. The meager flood plain and high water mark data on Carmel River have been limited to the April 1958 flood which has an estimated probable frequency of occurring once in 20 years. Correlating those findings with the discharge of 10,500 c.f.s. recorded at San Clemente Dam gives estimated discharges of 12,500 c.f.s. at Robles del Rio and 14,000 c.f.s. at Carmel. Due to the absence of high flows since the 1958 flood, changing land use and increased residential dwellings within the flood plain have created additional potential problems in the areas subject to flooding.

The accompanying aerial photographs show some extent of the flooding that occurred in April 1958. The limits of this flood, as observed from high water marks and determined from hydrologic data, are shown by the heavy dashed line. Recurrent flooding in certain areas is not limited to the year 1958; a resident of the Mission Fields Subdivision was quoted by the Jan. 13, 1965 issue of the "Carmel Valley Outlook" as remembering a miserable Easter Week in 1959, caused by a minor spring flood that only got knee deep in the subdivision.

GREATEST FLOOD OF RECORD

The greatest flood on the Carmel River of which there is any documentary evidence, occured in March 1911. Newspaper accounts in the March 14, 1911 issue of both the "Monterey Cypress" and the "Salinas Index" and the March 7, 1911 issue of the "Index" report certain items of interest relating to the size of that flood. The reported high water marks have been substantiated by interviews and a field survey by a consultant.

From evidence of high water marks at Camp Steffani and analysis of U.S.G.S. flow records in Arroyo Seco it has been surmised that the stage at the San Clemente damsite was the result of a flash flood. The peak stage is believed to have flattened as the flow moved downstream; even so, this flood has been estimated to be on the order of a 100-year event. The Jan. 6, 1965, issue of the "Carmel Valley Outlook" quotes Mr. C.M. Goldsworthy of the California Water and Telephone Company in commenting on the flood of 1911 as saying, "Just about everything in Carmel Valley washed out. It was lucky there wasn't much there in those days."

Moreover despite the estimated rare frequency of a flood of this magnitude occurring, another flood almost as severe, occurred in 1941. Thus, two statistically improbable events occurred back-to-back, so to speak, within a time interval of only three years. The greatest flows in Carmel River, within the memory of man are said to have occurred in 1862, when 30 inches of rain is reported to have fallen in the month of January, but effects due to this flood are undocumented, due to sparse settlement in Carmel Valley at that time.

New Cub Scout den formed in lower CV

A new Cub Scout den has been formed in the lower Valley and five boys were inducted into the group as bobcats on Wednesday night. At a family potluck supper at the home of Lt. Col. and Mrs. Stewart Giffin, David Giffin, Dan Bethea, Randy Bethea, Tom Kabat and Mike Harbert joined the group.

Cubmaster is Dr. Jack Kabat and the Den Mother is Mrs. Ted Roberts.

The new group expects to be well organized and ready for many lower Valley Cub Scouts by fall.

Stupid vandalism

This past week the sign pointing the way to Robles del Rio Lodge at the bottom of the hill was uprooted and put on the other side of the road. This isn't like fooling around with a regular advertising sign. The one in question is an official county road department sign, on county property, and molesting it is a more serious offense.

Vandalism in any form is a rather stupid method of letting off steam and can get kids into a great deal of trouble. However, vandalism against county, state or federally controlled property can get them into a great deal more.

With summer vacation in full swing and kids roaming up and down the roads, the temptation to tamper with mailboxes or knock signs down is increased. Perhaps this is a good time for parents to remind little and big ones alike of their responsibilities.

PERSPECTIVE

IN SHORT

STARTING ON JULY 23, Carmel and Carmel Valley phone users will be able to dial direct for information and repair service instead of chatting with the operator about it as they have in the past. The information number will be 411 and the repair service number will be 611.

LISA BUCHENROTH has done it again! Coming through her last semester at MPC with straight A's, Lisa proves that adults CAN go back to school and make it. In addition to making a 4 point grade average, she has received a scholarship to go on with her studies at Chico.

RUMOR HAS IT that signups for natural gas are building up rapidly and if the quota is filled soon, the Valley could have the lines in by winter time.

'Old' Stars chip in

DURING the "Old" Stars-All Star game July Fourth, when the score was see-sawing back and forth, William Ijams initiated a spontaneous and most welcome idea of putting up a ten dollar bill to go to the winners for equipment (and the "Old" Stars, judging by their attire, appeared in need of it). This was promptly matched by George Palmer. Since the game ended in a tie, the "Old" Stars generously relinquished their share of the purse. The Little League will need much more equipment with its planned expansion to six major teams next season. Anyone wishing to match the two gentlemen who started the purse may send their donations to Roger Sherman or to Ken Van Hagen at the General Store.

DR. BILL LIFSON who came to the Valley three years ago has decided to give up active practice and go into research instead.

JACK BORSTING, of Rancho Road, will be lecturing in Boulder, Colo., at the University of Colorado next week at a five week institute on engineering systems optimization. Jack is chairman of the department of operations analysis at the Navy Postgraduate School.

THE ANNUAL SEARCH for talent for the Monterey County Fair is on again with auditions starting Sunday at the Monterey USO at 3 p.m. All kinds of entertainment, young or old, variety, musical or hootenanny, are welcome to try for the $500 in prize money being offered.

The only qualification needed to apply is a desire to perform; however, the contestant cannot be a member of any union pertaining to the arts. The talent show will be presented on Aug. 11 and 12, at the Fair with the finals on Sunday, Aug. 13.

ANOTHER NOTE on the Fair: This year there will be a "Battle of the Bands." Auditions for this amateur event will be on Saturday at 1 p.m. at the outdoor theatre at the Fairgrounds. The bands are limited to rock 'n roll, rhythm and blues with no limit as to size.

TO THE EDITOR

Open letter to Mr. Casey

All of us on the Carmel Valley Little League teams want to thank you so very much. For one season now, we have played baseball on the field you made possible for us, and we think this field tops any other. We are very proud of Casey Field and try our best to keep it clean.

Little League baseball means something special to each one of us. We learn a lot with each new game, and, at the same time, keep very busy and happy during the summer months. Whether we win or lose our game, we play our best with the skills taught us and work hard to improve. All of us know that good team sportsmanship is the "key." Casey Field makes all of this possible.

Mr. Casey, thank you again for giving us the chance to play ball this year and for our special spot—Casey Field.

Animal welfare act

(Col. and Mrs. Bacher are sending copies of this letter to Senators Kuchel and Murphy and they suggest that others wishing to follow suit address them to the Senate Office Bldg., Washington, D.C. 20515.—ed. note)

Open letter to Congressman Burt L. Talcott:

We have just learned of the attempt to sabotage the Laboratory Animal Welfare Act, P.L. 89-544 (the law to stop the theft of pets and abuse of research animals) which passed last year after such a long battle. Mississippi's Representative Whitten, chairman of the House Agriculture Appropriations subcommittee, has succeeded in cutting the funds requested to enforce the law this fiscal year from $1.5 million to a mere $300,000. Proper inspection of animal dealers will be impossible. The licensing standard has already been enfeebled by "self-certification" by licensees as to their quarters for housing lab animals being alright. This is an unbelievable situation brought on when there was no money to finance inspection of the animal dealers and this has never been corrected.

This can be corrected and we are certain that you will be anxious to do all you can to remedy this grave mistake. 352 members of the House last year voted to have the long needed bill passed – what possible excuse can they have for emasculating it this year? The National Rifle Association was subsidized to the tune of $2.3 million money tucked away in the fiscal 1968 budget appendix; if economy is needed why not start there?

Sincerely,
Col. (ret.) and Mrs. F.A. Bacher Jr.
Los Laureles Road

Pets of the Week

TRUE BLUE TWINS are these little sisters who were thrown over the fence at the SPCA Animal Shelter at 2099 David in New Monterey last week.

"If they are not purebred blue tip pointers, they are very close to it," say the authorities at the shelter. Their coats are bluish grey with black spots. They have tulip-petal ears and worried eyes. They curl up in each others' arms at night. Would be nice if someone would adopt them both... but we dare say they won't mind being separated if each finds a good home.

They are about 4 months old and 12" high in the shoulder now. Full grown, they'll be elegantly-boned medium-sized beauties. Call 375-3333 if you are interested.

The Rhyming Philosopher

We all have a neighbor or maybe a friend
Whose passion is cabinet making or such.
The awful end product you can't comprehend –
So tell him he's wasting his efforts? Not much!

Your wife cooks a dinner that's foreign and new
From elephant hide you can't cut with a knife.
She claims it's delicious, but cowardly you
Won't tell her the truth – if you value your life!

You sit in a poker game down at the club,
When in walks your boss, joins the rest of your mob.
You fill a straight flush, he bluffs like a dub;
You call? Don't be silly – remember your job!

You don't tell Aunt Minnie those antiques she bought
Were made in Japan; you must forego this thrill.
Nor state to your uncle those fish that he caught
In Utah are sea bass! You're named in his will.

You're honest and truthful in most things at least,
'Til circumstance corners you dead, whereupon
It either unnerves you or brings out the beast
Depending on which side your bread's buttered on.

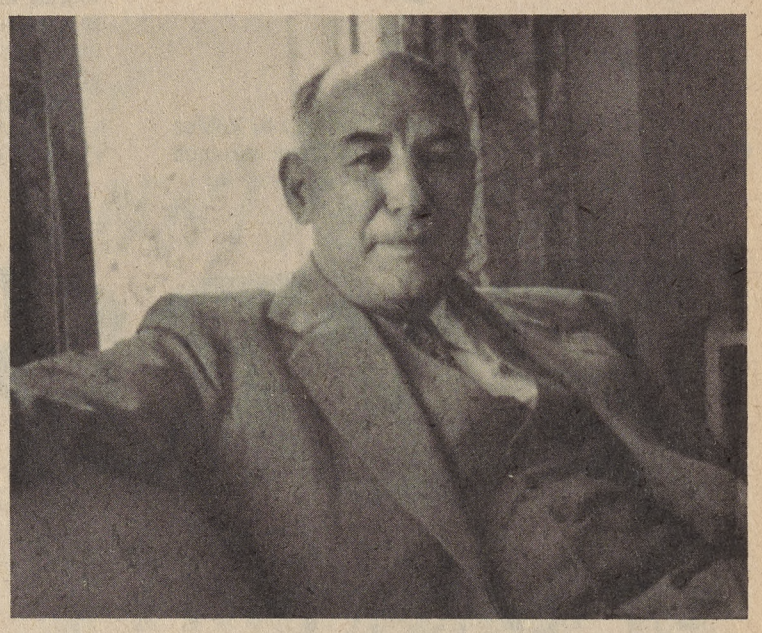
LL scribe has scholarly past



The Outlook has been honored in having an eminent scholar and teacher as sports writer, covering Little League. He is Dr. S.N. Trevino who, in fact, delayed his summer trip to Maine to go to the last game.

Dr. Trevino is a graduate of Austin College, Texas, and the University of Chicago where he became a member of the Romance Language Dept. and Dean of Students (1933-53).

He is a past assistant dean of the Defense Language Institute (1953-57); was director of the Foreign Service Institute for the State Dept. in Mexico City (1957-60) and regional language supervisor for eight South American countries, stationed in Lima, Peru (1960-65).

He is the author of "Spoken Spanish" and co-author of "Introduction to Spanish" and is a developer of phonograph records and films for the teaching of Spanish.

He retired two years ago with a Meritorious Service Award from the State Dept. and came to live in the Valley with his wife, Dorothy. They have two daughters here, Mrs. Margaret Bennett and Mrs. Buffie Collins and ten grandchildren.

Dr. Trevino is such a faithful fan of America's favorite sport that he would be at all the games even if he didn't have a Little League player in the family (Ron Bennett).

We are counting on his being back in the bleachers next year, taking notes and getting a fine tan.

Still champs, Red Sox maul Giants for final LL game

The Carmel Valley Little League champion Red Sox wound up their season July Fourth by mauling the Giants 16-2. Mike Feeney was impressive yielding only two scattered hits and fanning 11 Giants for a perfect season record of ten wins, one a no-hitter, without a loss. Jeff Hall hit a three-run triple in the top of the first and scored on Dan Bethea's single to clinch the victory. Totals: Red Sox 16 runs, 11 hits, 2 errors; Giants 2 runs, 2 hits, 7 errors. WP Mike Feeney, LP Mike Groves.

Following the game, League President Roger Sherman awarded the championship trophy to the Red Sox players, Coach Bill Conlan and Manager Hap Thystrup.

After the delicious steaks served at the benefit barbecue, the coaches, managers and officials (the "Old" Stars) played a nine inning 9-9 tie game with the newly-named All Stars. The game see-sawed dizzily and was not without its momets of hilarity. The "Old" Stars proved not to be so old, acquitting themselves handsomely in spite of the handicap that their home runs counted as outs.

In the finale of the 1967 season Thursday, the second-place Volunteers shut out the Tigers 4-0 behind Tom Ocampo's brilliant no-hitter. He also led the attack with two doubles and a single for a perfect three-for-three. Totals: Tigers 0-0; Volunteers 4-5. WP Tom Ocampo, LP Larry Scholink.

Manager Hap Thystrup and Coaches Bill Conlan and Sal Ocampo plan rigorous practice for the All Stars beginning next week. They host the Carmel All Stars at Casey Park on July 20.

FARM TEAMS

In the previous week's Farm Teams' games, the Indians blanked the second-place White Sox 11-0 behind the brilliant, one-hit pitching of John Barry. Larry Ocampo homered with two on in the third. Totals: Indians 11-8; White Sox 0-1. WP John Barry, LP Dan Carolan, HR Larry Ocamp (I).

In Monday's game, the White Sox were lucky to squeeze by the Pirates 10-8 in a hard-fought game. The losers outhit the winners 8-4. Perhaps it was poetic justice that gave the win to rookie pitcher Dan Carolan. He lost a three-hit heartbreaker to the Cubs his first time out.

The White Sox attack was paced by Gary Eldridge who tripled and doubled for a perfect day at bat. Loser Richard Ferris pitched four-hit ball and at bat went two-for-two, including a triple which drove in three runs. His teammate Billy Neidinger also hit two-for-two. Totals: White Sox 10-4; Pirates 8-8. WP Dan Carolan, LP Richard Ferris.

In the second game Saturday, the first-place Cubs routed the Pirates 15-3 behind Paul Jackson's three-hitter. Totals: Cubs 15-12; Pirates 3-3. WP Paul Jackson, LP Billy Neidinger.

Wednesday the Indians upset the first-place Cubs 11-6 with a seven-run first inning on the only four hits they got and deft all-around play. John Barry held the Cubs hitless except for the two hits he yielded in the second. Totals: Indians 11-4; Cubs 6-2. WP John Barry, LP Warren Heaviside.

Cypress Club to host stars of swim world at AAU Championships

Top stars from the world of synchronized swimming, including the Canadian, European, Japanese, and U.S. National AAU Champions, will compete on the Monterey Peninsula the weekend of July 15 and 16, as the Cypress Swim Club hosts the 1967 Pacific AAU Senior Outdoor Synchronized Swimming Championships at Monterey Peninsula College.

This marks the first time that a meet of this calibre has been held locally, according to Donn Squire, coach of the Cypress Swim Club. With four of the top seven teams in the nation entered, it is the next thing to a national competition.

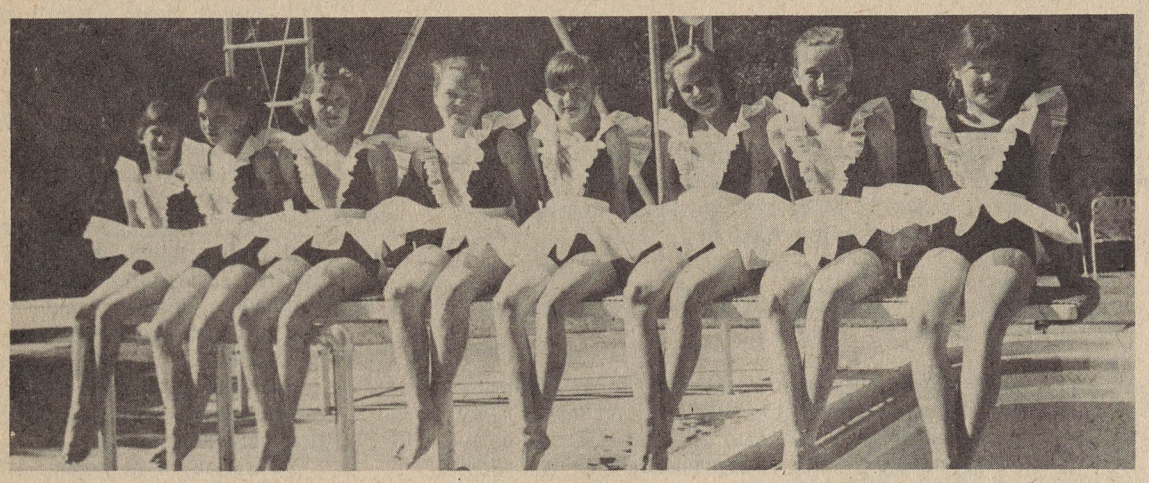
Among the athletic, aquatic stars appearing here will be the San Francisco Merionettes, winners of both Indoor and Outdoor National AAU Championships consecutively since 1961.

In close competition, will be the Santa Clara Aquamaids, the second place team in National AAU competition. The Aquamaids, by special request of Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson, performed for her and her party at Hearst Castle last year.

The Howell Swim Club of Danville, Calif., which was edged into third place by Santa Clara earlier this year at Florida, will be fighting to regain its second place position.

And the local Cypress Swim Club will strive to hold, or better, its seventh place position.

Admission to the event is free, and the competition gets under way at 9:30 a.m. Saturday, July 15.



SOME YEARS AGO these members of the Fort Ord Ordettes swam a special performance at Rancho Del Monte in Carmel Valley. Their coach, Donn Squire, is now coach of the Cypress Swim Club. Sharp eyes will recognize former Valley resident, and Cypress Swim Club member, Marsha Lane (third from left). Marsha is now a member of the Santa Clara Aquamaids, the second place team in the nation. Third from the right is Carol Redmond, Squire's most famous protege. Miss Redmond, now a member of the San Francisco Merionettes, is the Canadian and European champion in solo, duet and team competition, as well as the U.S. National AAU title holder in duets and teams, and, this year, will be trying to take away the National AAU solo title from her duet partner and teammate, Margo McGrath. All of these girls will be competing at Monterey Peninsula College, July 15 and 16, when the Cypress Swim Club hosts the 1967 Pacific AAU Senior Outdoor Synchronized Swimming championships.

City presents outdoor Sunday programs at Forest Theatre

Dance, drama and music will all be a part of the second summer Sunday afternoon program at Carmel's Forest Theater July 16.

Entertainment will begin at 2 p.m. and admission is free (although donations of dimes or dollars will be accepted), presented as a community event by the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea.

Choreographer Dale Lefler will present dancers Akemi Ito, Linda Cornish and Tony Hyland in three modern jazz routines, and ballerina Kira Ivanovsky has programed three dances by her advanced students.

Vignettes from Carmel Studio Theatre's current summer repertory will be enacted on the great outdoor stage by Studio players Milton Hayes, Luann Brown, Anne Brown, Roger Osgood, Kathy Holly and Ron Geren.

Seaside's Academy of Music, headed by former German opera conductor, Axel Duwe, will make up the musical part of the program, presenting young pianist Jeff Kessler who will perform the Bach Italian Concerto. He will also be heard as flutist in a baroque ensemble, which also includes flutist Karin Goodwin and Jimmie Reed, pianist.

Planned for future Sundays are a dance concert by the famous East Indian dancer, Ishvani (July 23) and ballerina Angene Feves, performing with members of the Oakland Civic Ballet (July 30).

All the Sunday afternoon Forest Theater programs will be free to the public, and are under the supervision of a special mayor-appointed committee composed of former city arts commissioners Barbara Norberg, Mausita Jennings, and Joseph Danysh.

In late August and early September, evening performances of the musical play, "Oliver," based on the Charles Dickens novel, and directed by Cole Weston, will be presented at the Forest Theater, under joint sponsorship of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea and the Carmel Unified School District.

CV Volunteers to enter teams in Hose Cart Race

The annual Hose Cart Race sponsored by the Carmel Fire Department has drawn entrants from most of the Peninsula Fire Departments for hilarious competition. Carmel will enter two teams, Carmel Valley Volunteers have two teams entered, and Pacific Grove will also have two groups competing. State Forestry Fire Department will bring one team, perhaps two, and the Cannery Row Volunteers will have one.

The teams work with a two-wheeled hose cart and speed is the deciding factor as they must run through a designated course, hook up to the hydrant, attach the nozzle and direct the stream at a target. It is a race full of laughs. The location is at the Carmel Fire House and the time is 6:30 Saturday night.

Following the races and the crowning of the queen, Miss Carmel Fire Department, the firemen and their wives will get together for a barbecue and dance at Sunset Center.

JUDGING IS TAKING PLACE this week to determine the winner of the title of Miss Carmel Fire Department. Preliminary judging was Monday at Crichton House and the final winner will be chosen on Friday at La Playa Hotel. The queen and her court will reign at the third annual Hose Cart Race, sponsored by the Carmel Fire Department on Saturday at 6:30 p.m. Over 80 gifts or gift certificates have been given by local merchants for the girls. Carmel's newest planner Charles McEwen, has background in building and real estate

The newest member of the Carmel Planning Commission, Charles McEwen, is in complete accord with other members of the group that "Carmel is a beautiful place to live... a unique area that must be kept that way without hurting anyone financially or otherwise."

McEwen was named to the planning staff last May and will serve until 1969. A realtor who has also been in building and subdividing, McEwen is a natural for the Planning Commission land use committee on which he serves. While the job is most time consuming, he finds it well worth while to work at a good logical development of Carmel.

McEwen feels the members of the commission, the building inspector's department and the planning director, John Riley, make a most compatible group that works well together and accomplishes decisions smoothly.

McEwen was born in Kansas City as was his wife, Naoma. He came to California first in 1936, but moved to Reno in 1938 where he worked with Union Oil. Ten years were spent in the Marine Corps, with duty in the South Pacific during World War II at Iwo Jima, Guadalcanal and Guam. He retired as a major.

CHARLES McEWEN

The McEwen's daughter, Jean, was born in Nevada. She is a senior at San Jose State, majoring in art history.

Naoma heads the note department at the Carmel branch of Crocker-Citizens Bank. The family moved to Carmel from Reno in 1950, stayed here a year and then went to Stockton to work in subdivision and building contracting.

McEwen is presently in partnership with Richard Catlin in real estate and vice president of the Carmel Board of Realtors and the Carmel Business Association. For two or three years he taught real estate practices at MPC night school.

Knowing land use and development as he does, it is not surprising to find Charles McEwen a conscientious member of the Carmel Planning Commission.

Artist starts summer classes

Eleanore Welborn, Carmel Adult School art teacher, and originator of the Monterey Jade glaze pottery now manufactured by the Marzi Pottery shop in the Valley, has started summer painting and sketching classes. Craft classes will follow in August.

The 25,000-acre Rancho San Carlos will be the site of her painting and sketching instruction. Further information may be had by phoning 624-2324.

Unitarians hold world religion lecture series

The Carmel Church-in-the Round has begun a special Sunday evening series of lectures, "Religions of the World," to replace morning services until the end of August.

Knowledgeable guest speakers will be featured. Church in the Round meets in the Nix Studio, Mission and 8th. The Rev. Karel Vit is minister.

Photography show

A one-man photography snow by Forest T. Cornwall is currently on display at Sancho Panza in Monterey.

The subject matter for the black and white photos is drawn from four countries: Japan, Mexico, the Philippines and the United States.

Open to the public, the exhibit will run through July 30.

Funny 'Forum' opens at Studio

MILTON HAYES portrays Hysterium in "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," currently on stage at the Studio Theatre. Hayes played the same role in the earlier version of the same play presented by the Studio in the spring.

There are a number of hysterically funny happenings in "A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum," playing this weekend at the Studio Theatre.

The Studio presented the same slapstick farce earlier in the spring, and has returned it for summer fare with an almost entirely new cast which has upgraded the production tremendously.

Sets, story and costumes are the same but the pace of the entire production has been heightened and a polish put on the performance that was not present in the earlier offering. Since even with the spring run, the Studio played to packed houses each night, with the present show, there should be standing room only.

Milton Hayes in the demanding role of Hysterium is one of the few from the original cast and they are fortunate that he remains. This is one of the hardest roles in the fast laugh-provoking farce and Hayes' portrayal adds much to the production.

Ed Shinbrot, who played Lycus in the original presentation is in the new "Forum," but in the part of Pseudolus, the slave. He is excellent in this major role... as he was excellent in the earlier one. This is a man with a fine sense of comedy.

Allan Weinfield as Sinex, who tries for the girls while his domineering wife (Diane Felty) is away, gave a polished and most professional performance. His leers were plausible and his manner perfect for the part of a lecherous old man.

The lovely Luann Brown as the lovely Phila is a fragile contrast to the wild action of the rest of the cast. It is a very busy play, and Luann does much to keep its threads together.

All in all, the production is a well-knit show, with all parts integrated into a smooth total.

Stars shine in '110' at White Oaks

"110 in the Shade" is a musical that brings a tear to many an eye as "Starbuck, the rainmaker" brings love and beauty into the life of Lizzie Curry.

"110" opened Saturday night at White Oaks Theatre in Carmel Valley and in addition to some tears it brought standing ovations to Michael Riordan, playing Starbuck, and Jeanne Devine in the role of Lizzie. The first night audience clapped and clapped repeatedly until the two were brought back from the dressing rooms for a final bow.

Again utilizing the divided sets, Jim Stewart has done a masterful job of lighting to create the hot, hot summer evening in the town of Three Point.

Riordan really shows his potential as an actor in this play and comes across with a strength not shown before.

Jeanne Devine, one of the new summer company, is Lizzie so completely that one almost forgets that she is playing a part. In her renditions of the songs "Raunchy" and "Old Maid," she is particularly good.

Another of the summer cast, Lisa Ann Binney, does a masterful job as "Snookie," the feisty gal whose little red hat is so much in demand. And Ron Stark as Jimmy, who wins the prized red hat, again shows his versatility.

Michael Byers as Lizzie's father, John Prejean as Noah, her brother, and Don Miller as File, the sheriff, all give consistent performances to make a well-rounded musical, in which the sensitive direction of Shirley Eoff shines.

MARGIE DEMAREST has been named queen of the Driveway Art Festival and Fashion Show benefit for the Carmel Valley Youth Organization. The festival on Saturday and Sunday, July 15 and 16, will feature over 20 local artists and original batik fashions such as the shift which Margie models above. There will be a drawing for paintings and artwork for a donation of $1. Hours of the festival are from 1-6 p.m. at the residence of Harry Conley on Marquard Road. Admission is free and there will be signs to follow.

Hedda Gabler back at Circle

The second offering in the Circle Theatre summer series, by "Repertory '67" will be "Hedda Gabler" opening on July 18 and 19. Norman McPhee, director of the Community Theatre, adapted Henrik Ibsen's forceful drama for presentation at the Circle.

With a bold and ruthless style, Hedda manipulates her husband and friends in a senseless power struggle. Hedda's beauty and clever, but warped mind, serve as her weaponry in a vain search for status and unquestioning devotion to her irrational whims. George, the intimidated husband, surprisingly finds a new motivation. And Judge Brack traps Hedda in her own web.

Marcia Gambrell Hovick stars as Hedda; Cal Schlesinger plays her husband, George; Robert Heater is cast as Judge Brack; Bill Withers is Eilert Lovborg, the writer; Mary Thomas plays Lovborg's mistress; Margaret Phillips is Miss Juliane Tesman, the sister-in-law; and Jean McGill plays Berta, the maid.

"Repertory '67" performs six nights weekly throughout the summer.

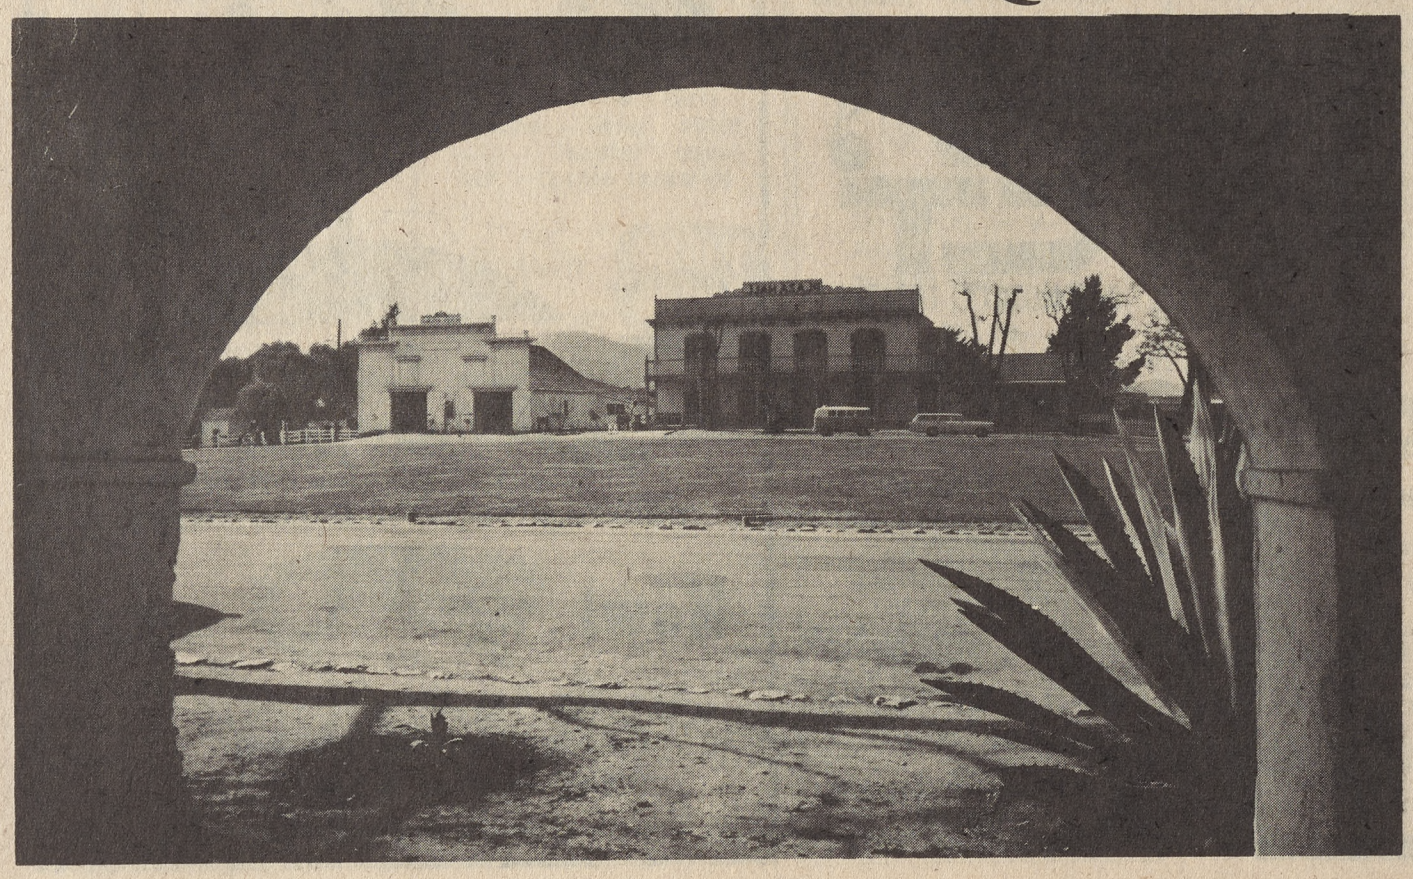
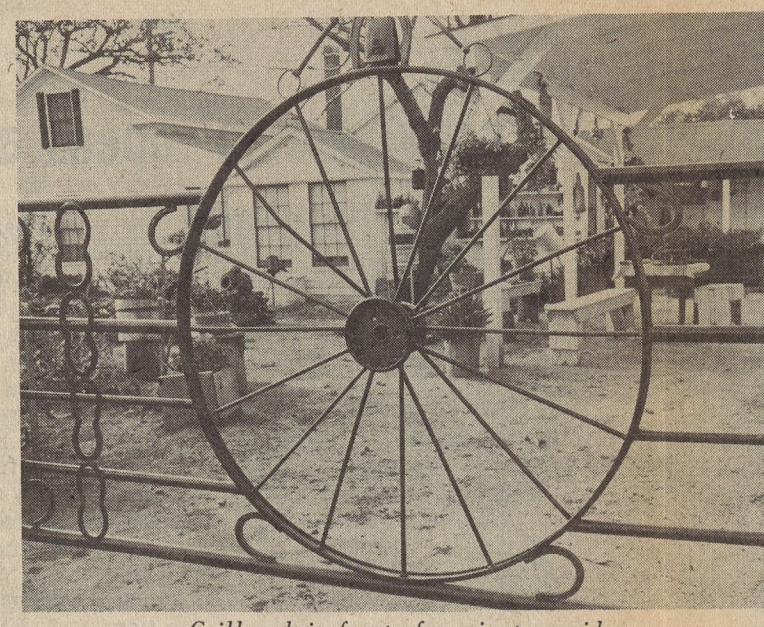
SAN JUAN BAUTISTA LIVES QUIETLY



. . . but it's not a ghost town

The Plaza Hall and Stables, seen across the Spanish Plaza from the mission.



Grillwork in front of a private residence

By ROBERT ISAACS

The heading on the Chamber of Commerce brochure reads "A 3 mile sidestep into the past," and a recent television commercial used the town to show that you could find a Bank of America branch no matter how far from civilization you might be.

But San Juan Bautista is not a ghost town, even though it is delightfully quiet. It is home for quite a few farm workers, and the inhabitants and tourists provide enough business for a surprising variety of establishments. Besides the expected antique shops and art studios, there are enough fine restaurants so that many people come from Carmel, Monterey, and San Francisco just for luncheon or dinner.

THE PLAZA

The big attraction is the beautifully preserved Spanish Plaza, dominated on one side by the Mission, founded in 1797, and in active use to this day. Across from the Mission are the Plaza Hall and Plaza Stable, the latter now serving as a museum of horse-drawn vehicles. Fronting the West side of the plaza is the Castro Adobe, originally General Jose Castro's administrative office when he served as Prefect of the First District of California. Next to the Adobe is the Plaza Hotel, with bar and dining room intact – but not in use.

If you really get thirsty, there's always the tasting room maintained by the Almaden Winery, not to mention the local taverns. The East end of the Plaza is open, facing expanse of valley lea eye to the Sierras. Im below is the rodeo are to overflowing every the annual fiesta-rode one time San Juan Ba not so quiet, and res at the restaurants ar mended.

DIRECTIONS

To get to the town, t way 101 north and wat turn-off reading "S Bautista" nine miles Gilroy. If you miss t Highway 156 towards just a bit further dow either case, San Juan is just three miles from way.

You'd better hurry be ress changes the fac Juan Bautista. I u they're putting up new at the rate of one a ye doesn't sound like muc ber that they used to down faster than that.

TIPS FOR STAGECOACH TRAVELERS

THE BEST SEAT INSIDE A STAGE IS THE ONE NEXT TO THE DRIVER. EVEN IF YOU HAVE A TENDENCY TO SEASICKNESS. WHEN RIDING BACKWARDS - YOU'LL GET OVER IT AND WILL GET LESS JOLTS AND JOSTLING. DON'T LET ANY 'SLY ELPH' TRADE YOU HIS MID-SEAT.

IN COLD WEATHER DON'T RIDE WITH TIGHT-FITTING BOOTS, SHOES, OR GLOVES. WHEN THE DRIVER ASKS YOU TO GET OFF AND WALK DO SO WITHOUT GRUMBLING, HE WONT REQUEST IT UNLESS ABSOLUTELY NECESSARY. IF THE TEAM RUNS AWAY - SIT STILL AND TAKE YOUR CHANCES. IF YOU JUMP NINE OUT OF TEN TIMES YOU WILL GET HURT.

IN VERY COLD WEATHER ABSTAIN ENTIRELY FROM LIQUOR WHEN ON THE ROAD; BECAUSE YOU WILL FREEZE TWICE AS QUICKLY WHEN UNDER ITS INFLUENCE.

DON'T GROWL AT THE FOOD RECEIVED AT THE STATION; STAGE COMPANIES GENERALLY PROVIDE THE BEST THEY CAN GET.

DON'T KEEP THE STAGE WAITING. DON'T SMOKE A STRONG PIPE INSIDE THE COACH - SPIT ON THE LEEWARD SIDE. IF YOU HAVE ANYTHING TO DRINK IN A BOTTLE PASS IT AROUND. PROCURE YOUR STIMULANTS BEFORE STARTING AS "RANCH" (STAGE DEPOT) WHISKEY IS NOT "NECTAR."

DON'T SWEAR OR LOP OVER NEIGHBORS WHEN SLEEPING. TAKE SMALL CHANGE TO PAY EXPENSES. NEVER SHOOT ON THE ROAD AS THE NOISE MIGHT FRIGHTEN THE HORSES. DON'T DISCUSS POLITICS OR RELIGION. DON'T POINT OUT WHERE MURDERS HAVE BEEN COMMITTED ESPECIALLY IF THERE ARE WOMEN PASSENGERS.

DON'T LAG AT THE WASH BASIN. DON'T GREASE YOUR HAIR. BECAUSE TRAVEL IS DUSTY. DON'T IMAGINE FOR A MOMENT THAT YOU ARE GOING ON A PICNIC. EXPECT ANNOYANCES, DISCOMFORT, AND SOME HARDSHIP."

The Winslow home at Ridgeway and Country Club Drive has been purchased by former Pacific Grove residents, the Art Fossos. Owners of the Chatterbox Restaurant, the Fossos are parents of Diane, Carl, William, Christopher, Judy, and Art Jr.

Their household is soon to have an addition with the arrival for a six-week stateside visit of Miss Chikako Inouye, an exchange student from Chichibu City, Japan. Her trip is sponsored by Lions International of which both her father and Art Fosso are members.

The nineteen-year-old guest is a student at Kyoritsu Women's College.

A sign in the window reading "Happy Fourth of July" set the theme for the guests invited to celebrate with Susie and Vic Harber at their home on Via Contenta. Firecracker decorations made by Susie decorated the house for the delicious dinner party.

Attending were Josie and Dean Diaz, Patty and Hank Blatnik, Patricia DeAmaral, Eva and Hans Doelman, Rosemary and Bill Broderick, Ethel and Dick Radawitz, Jeannine and Tom Bottaro, and Marsha and Peter Lyon.

"THE 4th" AT HOLMAN'S

The spacious Holman Guest Ranch has known many festive Fourths over the years and the names of a large happy group representing 1967 have been added to the list. With Mrs. C.E. (Vivian) Holman as their gracious hostess, the guests enjoyed barbecues in "made-to-order" weather both Saturday and Sunday evenings, swimming, hiking and relaxing in the privacy of the ranch situated high above the Village.

Former Valleyites who now make their home in Berkeley here for their vacation are Mr. and Mrs. James Kruger, six-year-old daughter Chris, and their son, Jimmy, who is seven. Marilyn and Jim own a home on Via Contenta that is presently rented so the Ranch provides ideal headquarters from which to visit many of their favorite people and places...

Occupying the bridal suite were Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Stephens of Freedom Blvd. in Watsonville who were married Saturday and chose the Ranch for their honeymoon...

A very attractive couple vacationing from Long Beach are Mr. and Mrs. William Hill. Anita and Bill were anxious to get away from the confusion of city living and have fallen in love with the Valley...

Many Valleyites have visited the Little Swiss Restaurant in Carmel, so this week the owners, Mr. and Mrs. Sigmund Wasowski, turned the tables and came to the Ranch for a well-deserved rest which they describe "is like coming into another world"...

Salinas Valley neighbors here for the long weekend were Betty and John Waterman (he is a former member of the planning commission) and their children, Cynthia, Kevin, and John, who were here with Lynn and Ronald Ludes and three-year-old daughter, Susan...

A fascinating member of the French Consul from the San Francisco office and his party, Mr. Paul La Fraffont were here. Mr. La Fraffont has another three months' diplomatic service to complete in our country before returning to his homeland...

The Phil Adams family drove down from San Francisco in their Mercedes...

Valley Volunteers contain grass fire

A twenty-five foot square of unoccupied land on Miramonte Road was burned at 5:25 a.m. July 2. Thought to have started from a tossed cigarette from a car, the Volunteer fire department was able to contain the blaze to the grass of that small area and a tree trunk.

Firemen get first aid, ambulance calls

The Red Cross ambulance operated by the CV Volunteer Fire Dept. was called to the Laurel Drive home of Lynn Dickie at 7:38 p.m. July 2. Mr. Dickie who was injured in a fall was transported to the Community Hospital.

First aid at the Valley fire house was given to Alfred McCulloch of 1012 Sunset Drive, Pacific Grove, at 4:15 p.m. July 4. McCulloch received multiple lacerations when his motorcycle tipped over.

The market and the Middle East—a breakthrough for peace and a resurging economy?

The Economic Policy Committee of Dean Witter & Co. composed of senior analysts and economists, has just completed a careful study of the Middle East crisis and its effect on the economy and the stock market. Their conclusions, based on solid facts and visible trends, are contained in our latest Market Outlook Report.

- Did the Middle East crisis reaffirm international stability?
- What effect could it have on a settlement in Vietnam?
- Is a substantial recovery in the domestic economy near?
- Is the market technically ready for a strong move?

Answers to these questions highlight this important study which could have an important effect on your portfolio. Your complimentary copy—including purchase recommendations—is available at any Dean Witter office. Or simply complete and mail the coupon below.

Porter's Pool

Portraits of the Valley

Margaret Ziegler's show at the Tantamount this month is made up exclusively of landscape portraits of the Carmel Valley which makes it unique.

Mountains, river, meadows and hills all are there, asking to be recognized. Many have intriguing place names. "Porter's Pool," for instance, is the wide spot in the river just below the F.P. Porters' first Valley home (Bettie O'Neal lives there now). It also provided the background for one of Valley writer Betty Antoncich's mystery stories for children.

Other subjects are "Stormy Day" (looking south toward the river); "Sun Spot on the Meadow" which shows the Doyt Early house and barn; "Yellow Poplars" (the Sigourney trees along Carmel Valley Road) and "Island in the River."

New carriers slow rural P.O. service

The Carmel Valley Post Office wishes to thank its rural route patrons for their understanding in the late delivery of mail during the first week of July.

As a result of civil service examinations, both rural routes are being served by new carriers. Frank Lucido, Jr., has been assigned the route formerly served by Chuck Olmsted and Marty Eagan has been appointed to serve Frank's old route.

There is one thing that all rural patrons can do to speed mail delivery, and that is to see that their name is clearly printed on their rural mailbox. With over 750 boxes to be served, any delay causes slower mail delivery.

Both carriers are becoming familiar with their new routes, and mail delivery is again back on schedule.

Bridge lessons

A new series of bridge lessons has begun and will continue for seven weeks at Rancho del Monte Country Club. Mrs. Mary Lou McElwaine will conduct the two-hour sessions.

There will be lessons for both beginning and intermediate players. Each session will be complete in itself and will be held from 1-3 p.m. on Wednesdays.

Entry forms ready for County Fair

Entry forms and rule books for the National Horse Show and the Fine Arts, Crafts and Photography departments of the Monterey County Fair are now available at the fairgrounds' office.

Books and forms are being mailed to last year's entrants and exhibitors; however, due to the limited time available, it is strongly recommended that exhibitors planning on entering their work obtain entry forms at the Monterey County Fairgrounds in Monterey.

The Monterey County Fair is Aug. 9 through 13.

Entry deadline dates for the above divisions are:

National Horse Show, July 17; Fine Arts, July 31; Crafts, July 31; Photography, July 31.

CVPOA survey shows planlines are favored 2-1 for CV Rd. to Farm Center

The results of the Carmel Valley Road poll made by the Carmel Valley Property Owners Association were released at last Thursday's CVPOA board meeting. By a margin of more than 2 to 1, Valley residents were in favor of reestablishing the four lane planlines from Highway 1 to the Farm Center.

On the section from the Farm Center to Los Laureles Grade road the percentage dropped to about half and half. The remainder of the distance from the Grade to Esquiline Road leading to Robles del Rio met with opposition of 2 to 1.

2,860 questionnaires were mailed in the poll. Answers were received from 550. The letters were mailed to both CVPOA members and non-members, and the responses from the non-members outnumbered those from the CVPOA membership rolls.

Results on the first section of road to the Farm Center were 376 in favor of reinstating the planlines and 163 against.

From Farm Center to Los Laureles Grade the number was 248 for and 261 against the re-establishment of the lines.

On the third zone from the Grade through the Village the numbers were 390 against and 155 in favor of four lane planlines.

The results of the poll will be forwarded to the County Planning Commission, Road Department and the Board of Supervisors as a guide of public opinion.

In other business, Doyt Early reported on the Slope Density tour which members of the Planning Commission made in Carmel Valley last month.

Opens July 21

Bach Festival has grown in scope

The Carmel Bach Festival which began thirty years ago has grown consistently since its inception in professional quality as well as scope.

As the Bach Festival has grown, the time alloted to it has been extended. The many people wishing to hear the program in recent years necessitated adding a second weekend to the program with the first Friday, Saturday and Sunday programs repeated. This year the Festival will begin on Friday, July 21 and run through Sunday, July 30.

The Festival steadily attracts accomplished vocalists for its Festival chorus, many of whom return year after year.

The musicians are chosen by director-conductor Sandor Salgo in January and rehearsals begin soon after.

Carmel residents who will sing in the chorus at this year's festival are Anna Pundt, Ann Welchner, Meredith Blue, Robert Armstead, Bruce Grimes, Robert Otis, Les Rhinehart and John Williams.

George Sackman of Carmel Valley is also a member of the chorus.

This year on opening night, Friday, July 21, the Festival Chorus plays a particularly large role singing with the chorale and orchestra in the J.S. Bach Contata #8 and the Carl Philipp Emanuel Bach Magnificat.

Tickets may be obtained at the Bach Festival Headquarters in Sunset Center from 10-12 and 1-4 p.m. Monday through Saturday.

Valleyites stress flood control combined with water conservation

Valley warrants it, Loran Bunte, district engineer, felt that a flood control zone or a county service area must be established to work with the Federal Government. This agency would have to provide land easements and rights-of-way, release the United States from claims, and guarantee that the U.S. government would be free of maintenance cost upon completion of the project.

Numerous Valley residents at the meeting brought up the matter of water conservation which they felt was equally as important as water control. Hal Arnot of the Carmel Sanitary District commented, "We know we are going to need a third dam. Rather than mess around with river bottom land, it would seem that the third dam would take care of the flood problem as well."

"DO-IT-YOURSELF"

Speaking on the "do-it-yourself" method, Mrs. Harwell Dyer, whose home on Boronda Road held two feet of water in the 1958 flood, said that neighbors in that area had banded together and dredged the channel and none has had flooding since.

Commenting further on this, Arnot stated that since the arrangement has been worked out between county, state and the sanitary district to keep the mouth of the river clear, there has been no sign of flooding in the area west of Highway 1.

Furthermore, he stated that the Odello brothers have made arrangements with the sanitary district to straighten the channel and keep logs clear, a major problem in 1958.

The engineers felt that while this would affect the extreme lower areas of the river, that there would still be flooding further upstream and that individual projects could have an adverse affect on other areas even though an immediate problem was solved.

Richard R. Kennedy of Kennedy Engineers for the Carmel Sanitary District commented that he thought the report was misleading in that it implied a health problem from water standing on sewage plant grounds, and that compared to studies made by them and George Bestor Assoc., the flows at the river mouth were excessive in the Engineers' report.

He then read a letter sent to the county Board of Supervisors in 1963 protesting the building of levees north of the treatment plant which diverts water toward the plant. They, at this time, had asked the board to institute flood plain zoning.

Dr. Joseph Noto, who owns 16 acres in the flood plain near Schulte Road felt that any solution would have to involve water conservation, flood control and water pollution in the river from septic fields.

After Col. Roper's statement that any solution by the Army Engineers would take approximately nine years to realize, the meeting slowed to a close. Any further study will now have to be instigated by county agencies and Carmel Valley residents.
